The Consumer Electronics Association (CEA) announced that Davis Instruments, ShopJimmy.com, Sleek Audio, Bell'O International and Ooma are the winners of the inaugural Visit Me at CES 2010 exhibitor video contest. Each of these five 2010 CES exhibiting companies will receive one month of free exposure with their winning videos on CESweb.org leading up to the 2010 International CES, January 7-10 in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The 2010 CES audience voted for their favorite video November 22-December 4, with the top five vote-getting companies earning a video spotlight on CESweb.org. More than 30 videos were entered into this year's contest.

"This video competition, powered by Votigo, provides an excellent opportunity for our exhibitors to connect virtually with the attendees they will be seeing at the upcoming 2010 international CES," said Karen Chupka, senior vice president, events and conferences, CEA. "We were pleased with the exhibitor response to this competition as it truly exemplifies the innovation and creativity within the CE industry and the building excitement and buzz surrounding the 2010 CES."
