TTI Earns Distributor of the Year Award from Spectrum Advanced Specialty Products

TTI announced that the company has been awarded the Distributor of the Year Award from Spectrum Advanced Specialty Products. The award was presented at the annual Electronics Distribution Show and Conference in Las Vegas, Nev.

This marks the third year that Spectrum Advanced Specialty Products has presented this award to TTI. The award cites a combination of top point of sale (POS) market share in overall filtered connectors and low pass filters.

Jeff Ray, Vice President Supplier Marketing for TTI commented, “Spectrum Advanced Specialty Products is a fully vertically integrated manufacturer of custom solutions, and as such, offers TTI the ultimate in design support and quality assurance when working with our customers’ engineers in Hi Reliability filter and interconnect applications.”

Mark Lyons, Spectrum Advanced Specialty Products Global Distribution Sales Manager, said, “We are very pleased to once again present TTI with the Distributor of the Year award. Thanks to the cooperation between the TTI branches and our sales force, TTI was able to secure the top position for overall POS market share as well as having the most design registrations of any distributor. Spectrum and TTI have a long and mutually beneficial relationship and this award represents our appreciation for their energy and support in attaining our mutual goals.”
