EPAM Joins Windows Azure Circle Partner Program

The Associated Press

Newtown, PA-January 29, 2013-EPAM (NYSE:EPAM), a leading provider of complex software engineering solutions and a leader in Central and Eastern European IT service delivery, today announced it has been selected to join the Windows Azure Circle Partner program, a group of specialized Microsoft partner organizations that provide deployment planning services for organizations interested in moving to the cloud utilizing Windows Azure.

"Our selection by Microsoft as Windows Azure Circle Partner further demonstrates our expertise and significant investments made in EPAM Cloud Competency Center. Our customers rely on EPAM to architect global cloud solutions and reengineer entire product portfolios to cloud and SaaS model. EPAM's experience with Windows Azure platform will ensure the best possible outcome for these customers," said Eli Feldman, VP Cloud Solutions and Services at EPAM.

"EPAM is a part of the Microsoft Partner Network and is a Gold Certified Partner in Business Intelligence, Application Development, Collaboration and Content, Data Platform, Digital Marketing and Mobility. Being also recognized as part of the Windows Azure Circle is a great testament to our cloud services team offering strategic public cloud solutions to our customers," said Vlad Eydelman, Director, EPAM Microsoft Competency Center.

"Recognition as a Windows Azure Circle program partner demonstrates EPAM's ability to deliver public cloud solutions that solve today's business challenges," said Jon Roskill, corporate vice president, Worldwide Partner Group at Microsoft Corp. "By joining the Windows Azure Circle, EPAM has proven its mastering of Microsoft cloud technologies and continued drive for success in the future of the public cloud."

The Microsoft Partner Network helps partners strengthen their capabilities to showcase leadership in the marketplace on the latest technology, to better serve customers and, with 640,000 Microsoft partners in its ecosystem, to easily connect with one of the most active, diverse networks in the world.
