Coming Soon...

An Engineering Mind

I just wanted to let everyone know that follows this blog that the new website will be launching march 1st. Yes, that is right, an ACTUAL site. I did have to employ Carl's help slightly, so if there is any part you don't like, you can email me! So, if you are new to this blog, or have been with me since the beginning, please check back March 1st to see the page! Thanks

Todd
