

Digi-Key to Unveil Redesigned Booth for electronica 2010

Electronic components distributor Digi-Key Corporation, recognized by design engineers as stocking the industry's broadest selection of board level electronic components for immediate shipment worldwide, will make its presence known during electronica 2010 Nov. 9-12 in Munich, Germany.

Digi-Key's presence at electronica 2010 will be even bigger and better this year. With a redesigned booth; custom Digi-Key slot machines; Digi-Key soccer balls; appearances by Marilyn Monroe and Captain Jack Sparrow lookalikes; Digi-Key will truly be everywhere during electronica 2010.

Digi-Key's redesigned booth will include information kiosks, a platform showcasing the 2010 Chevrolet Corvette to be given away the last day of the show, and several innovative surprises. Digi-Key representatives will be available during the trade show to answer questions and provide information about Digi-Key's products, suppliers, and distribution processes.

Additionally, Digi-Key has expanded its presence at electronica to include the Digi-Café located across the hall adjacent to the Digi-Key booth (A5.576), where attendees can purchase beverages, snacks or satisfying meals while taking a break from their busy schedules. Attendees can stay connected at Digi-Key's Wi-Fi Hotspot in Hall B3, where they can check their e-mail, browse the Internet, or take a break from the action.

Visit the Digi-Key booth during electronica 2010 to meet Digi-Key representatives, have your photo taken with Marilyn Monroe, and for your chance to win a 2010 Chevrolet Corvette and other great prizes!
